DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's election of Group I, claims 1-17 and 22, in the reply filed on 19 May 2006 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claims 1-17 and 22 are presented for examination on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-17 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1, 2, and 9 are rendered vague and indefinite by the extremely ambiguous phrase "and the like" (claim 1, line 9; claim 2, lines 4-5; and claim 9, line 3). This phrase is very unclear as it does not adequately define what is and is not considered "and the like" (for example, in what way would something else read upon "and the like" - e.g., are the recited elements/limitations structurally like other undefined elements/limitations, functionally like other undefined elements/limitations, or something else?). It is strongly suggested that this phrase be removed from the claim language, wherever it appears.

Art Unit: 1655

Claim 9 is rendered vague and indefinite by the trademark "Varian Chroma..Zone™" (lines 2-3). The relationship between a trademark and the product it identifies is sometimes indefinite, uncertain, and arbitrary. The formula or characteristics of the product may change from time to time and yet it may continue to be sold under the same trademark. In patent specifications, every element or ingredient of the product should be set forth in positive, exact, intelligible language, so that there will be no uncertainty as to what is meant. Arbitrary trademarks which are liable to mean different things at the pleasure of manufacturers do not constitute such language. Ex Parte Kattwinkle, 12 USPQ 11 (Bd. App. 1931).

All other claims depend directly or indirectly from rejected claims and are, therefore, also rejected under USC 112, second paragraph for the reasons set forth above.

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 1-17 and 22 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-17 and 22 of copending Application No. 10/624,436. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Art Unit: 1655

The elected invention of claims 1-17 and 22 is free of the art. The prior art of record does not teach nor reasonably suggest a preparatory process employing Uncaria plant matter comprising the recited steps, as instantly claimed.

Conclusion

No claim is allowed.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
